Belleville, Illinois, March 17, 2009 –Unite US/Educate US/Strengthen US - Come walk with many passionate people behind so many causes! First walk of it's kind in the Nation!!

Grand Marshal of this year's event will be Carey Davis #38 - Fullback from the Super Bowl Champion Pittsburg Steelers.

Project U.S. is hosting the first annual "Weaving of the Ribbons Walk" - 5 Mile walk benefiting over 21 ribbon related agencies throughout St. Clair County. The "Weaving of the Ribbons" is an opportunity for all involved to "WALK AS ONE". Net revenue from this event will be equally allocated to each agency to further the outreach of their particular cause throughout St. Clair County.

Kick off will begin at Southwestern Illinois College and will proceed down the Richland Creek Gateway trail to the Scheel Street Metro Link station. Parking is limited so participants are encouraged to ride metro link to and from Southwestern Illinois College.

For more information about this event, please contact creator and coordinator of the event, Angela Barnes, President of Project U.S. at (618) 234-0291. For media inquiries, please contact Kathleen Kaiser at (618) 444-3802.
